For You, O Lord, will bless the righteous; with favour You will surround him as with a shield. Psalm 5:12NKJV The Bible says that God will surround the righteous with favour. If you are trusting in the finished work of Christ, God sees you as righteous (seeRomans3:22). So, you qualify; you can pray, Lord, I need your favour in this job interview, or in selling this house, or in making this deal, or in going on this date, etc. Be prepared for your old programming to kick in, where you think about the word righteous; you begin to wonder if your thoughts, words, and deeds are good enough to deserve Gods favour.Here is a truth you need to keep in mind: the only righteousness that God responds to is the righteousness of Christ. And since He has placed you in Christ, you are always qualified to ask God for favour and believe He will grant it. You are saved by grace. And the word grace means unearned, unmerited, undeserved favour. The worlds concept of favour is misleading; She owes me a favour, or I dont owe you any favours! In other words, the worlds concept of favour is totally performance based. But the only performance God looks at when it comes to granting you His favour is Christs performance on your behalf and the fact that you are trusting totally in Him. His life covers all your sins of omission, and His death covers all your sins of commission. And since God always sees you in Christ, in His eyes you are always qualified for favour. righteousness shall be imputed to us who believe in Him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead (Romans 4:22, 24NKJV). So, today expect Gods favour. Psalm 40:1NKJV When youre up against a problem that seems too big for you or feel like you are in over your head and you dont know what to do or which way to go, use the waiting strategy. Thats the one David the psalmist used. And it worked for him: I waited patiently for the Lord; and He inclined to me, and heard my cry. He also brought me up out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my steps. He has put a new song in my mouthpraise to our God; Blessed is that man who makes the Lord his trust My ears You have opened (Psalm 40:1-4, 6NKJV). Waiting is hard to do when you are anxious. And waiting patiently is even harder. Stop and think who you are waiting forthe Lord. He is Lord of every situation, including yours.Waiting patiently can often lead to better outcomes. By disengaging and allowing yourself time to think and meditate on Gods Word, it gives you time to gather more information, seek guidance, and view the situation from a different perspective. Waiting patiently also reduces stress which means youll be able to think more clearly and make wiser choices rather than making a hasty decision that might complicate the situation furtherthink Abraham and Sarah. Waiting for God to work is the wise way. While you are waiting, He is working on your behalf. A Christian leader explains: The answer is illustrated in a story about a lady who had a small house at the turn of the century. She was quite wealthy but also quite frugal People were surprised, then, when she decided to be among the first to have electricity in her home. Several weeks after the installation, a meter reader appeared at her door. He asked her if her electricity was working well, and she assured him it was. Im wondering if you can explain something to me, he said. Your meter shows scarcely any usage. Are you using your power? Certainly, she answered. Each evening when the sun sets, I turn on my lights just long enough to light my candles; then I turn them off. Shes tapped into the power but didnt use it. Her house is connected but not altered. Dont we make the same mistake? We, toowith our souls saved but our hearts unchangedare connected but not altered. Trusting Christ for salvation but resisting transformation. We occasionally flip the switch, but most of the time we settle for shadows. What would happen if we left the light on? What changes would occur if we set about the task of dwelling in the radiance of Christ? No doubt about it: God has ambitious plans for us. The same one who saved your soul longs to remake your heart. His plan is nothing short of a total transformation. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, (Romans8:29CSB). Today, use your God-given power. Nehemiah 2:4NIV The rebuilding of Jerusalems walls began with two questions the king asked Nehemiah. The first question was What is bothering you? (seeNehemiah2:2). The second question was What is it you want? (Nehemiah2:4NIV). Nehemiah replied, send me to the city in Judah where my ancestors are buried so that I can rebuild it (Nehemiah2:5NIV). Nehemiah knew exactly what he wanted, because a passion for it had been conceived in his spirit. He had been thinking and praying about it for quite a few months when the king asked him what he wanted. A pastor writes: Few things are as miraculous as the moment of human conception. A sperm penetrates an egg, and all the genetic data that determine who you will becomeeverything from facial features to personality traitsis encoded within that single cell. And it begins a nine-month process of gestation. The mothers body starts producing hormones before she even knows she is pregnant. The babys heart starts beating on day twenty-two. At four weeks, that single cell has grown ten thousand times larger. At around day forty-two, neurons start multiplying at the astounding rate of approximately ten thousand per second. Everything from the optic nerve to the auditory cortex to the respiratory system is being formed in the womb. And a God-given vision is conceived the same way. It begins small and keeps growing within you until the time of delivery. Thats why the Bible says, For the vision is yet for the appointed time; though it delays, wait for it; for it will certainly come. It will not delay long (Habakkuk2:3NASB20). So, the word for today iswant what God wants. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. Stand firm against him, and be strong in your faith. (1 Peter 5:8-9NLT). The word Christ means the Anointed One. So as a Christian, you are anointed by the same Spirit that rested upon Christ. Satan tempted Christ, and he will tempt you. Satan targeted Christ because he feared His destiny; likewise, Satan has discerned your destiny, and hes out to stop you from reaching it. When he reminds you of the failures in your past, its to discourage you and keep you from reaching for the future God has in mind for you.Paul wrote, he chose us in advance, and he makes everything work out according to his plan (Ephesians1:11NLT). This means God has chosen you to fulfil a certain purpose. He has a specific plan for your life, and He is making everything work according to that plan. Satan also knows this, and thats why his attack against you will never let up. C.S. Lewis said, There is no neutral ground in the universe; every square inch, every split second, is claimed by God, and counter-claimed by Satan.There is no middle ground. It is only a matter of time before you must join one side or another. And it is preferable to predetermine your position with a decisive intention than have it selected for you by passive default. So each day, when you awake, dress for battle and prepare for attack knowing that in Gods strength you will win. When you make a vow to God, do not delay to fulfil it. Ecclesiastes 5:4NIV When the pressures in your life begin to mount, the first thing you will be tempted to drop is your time alone with God, praying and reading His Word. And whats more, Satan knows if he can keep you from it, he has won the battle, and he will get no opposition from you. So, how can you overcome this problem? 1) By making a covenant with God: Think about it: why do we make marriage vows? So we will think twice about breaking them! Its the same in your devotional life. When you make a vow to God, do not delay to fulfil it (Ecclesiastes5:4NIV) 2) By scheduling it. Block out time to meet with God each day, just like you would for a doctors appointment or a business meeting. Can you think of a more important appointment? Surely not! 3) By being prepared for the devils excuses. Adopt the Boy Scout motto: Be prepared! American preacher, Dr Robert G. Lee used to say, If you wake up in the morning and dont meet the devil face on, it means your head in the same direction! 4) By leaving your Bible open the night before to the verses you intend to read the next morning. When you wake up, it will remind you that the most important thing you have to do today is meet with God. What if you miss a day? Dont worryand dont go on a guilt trip. If you miss a meal, you dont give up eating, right? It just means you eat a little more at the next one and move on from there. That may describe where you are today. Your hopes are dead, your soul is dry, your life in disarray. Whats the answer? 1) You need God to shake things up in your life; there was a noise, and suddenly a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to bone (Ezekiel37:7NKJV). If it feels like things are being shaken up in your personal life, your home life, and your work life, rejoice; it means God has great plans for you. 2) You need God to speak to you through His Word. O dry bones, hear the Word of the Lord! (Ezekiel 37: 4NKJV). Gods Word turned this bunch of bones into a mighty army that could conquer, win, and fulfil His purposes. And Gods Word will do the same for you. Jesus said, And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free (John8:32NKJV). So, get into Gods Word, and get Gods Word into you. 3) You need God to breathe His Holy Spirit on you. O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live. and breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great army (Ezekiel37:9-10NKJV). When youre empowered by His Spirit, you will exceed your own expectations and do great things for God. Ezekiel couldnt see the potential in those bones until God showed it to him. So, no matter what others say, God sees potential in you and thats why He is shaking you up. The Lord will reward each one for whatever good they do, Ephesians 6:8NIV When God asks you to sacrifice on behalf of somebody else, do it. Its like putting money in a heavenly account. You may not need it today or tomorrow, but when you do, God will ensure it comes back to you in multiplied form. Indian Christian missionary Sadhu Sundar Singh and a companion were travelling through a pass high in the Himalayas when they found a body lying in the snow. They checked for vital signs and discovered the man was still alive, but barely. He had a broken leg and could not walk. As Sundar prepared to stop and help this unfortunate traveller, his companion objected, saying, We shall lose our lives if we burden ourselves with him. Sundar, however, couldnt comprehend leaving the man to die in the snow without an attempt at rescue. His companion bade him farewell and walked on. Sundar lifted the traveller on his back and, with great exertionmade greater by the high altitude and snowy conditionscarried him onwards. As he walked, the heat from his body began to warm the frozen man, and also keep Sundars body warm. Before long, they came upon another travellers body lying in the snow, and on closer inspection, they discovered he was dead. You guessed it. It was Sundars original travelling companion! So, whats the lesson in all this? What you make happen for others, God will make happen for you!
