These two Enneagram tests help you determine which personality type you are. Your wing will also be indicated. Some suggestions on getting the most accurate results are below. Classical enneagram test This test has pages with 9 questions or less (1 for each Enneagram type). You'll get less questions per page after having answered enough questions to establish which types you are not. Enneagram test with instinctual variant With this test you get pairs of character traits to rate. It is quicker than the other test, and indicates your instinctual subtype as well. Getting accurate results from these Enneagram tests It's important to answer the questions honestly. Try not to answer them in terms of how you would like to see yourself, but in terms of how you actually are, or have tended to be in the past. Actually it is not so easy to answer the questions honestly, as we all want to see ourselves as better than we are, and we often have preconceived ideas about ourselves that are not really true. For instance, if you resent being fearful, you might have worked to develop courage to compensate, but the fear is still there beneath the surface. Sometimes a trait might be so inconsistent with our self-image, that we actually deny having it ourselves, but become annoyed by it when we see it in others. Also, we might falsely think that we possess some desirable quality that we admire in others. To derive accurate results from any Enneagram test, it is important to be aware of these very natural tendencies, and to answer the questions honestly. The Enneagram of Personality is a model of nine personality types. It is frequently used in self-help, business management, and spiritual development.The Enneagram is not an instrument that is commonly used in psychological research, although proponents like Virginia Price (psychologist, Ph.D.) and David Daniels (M.D. and professor of psychiatry at Stanford University) claim to have found scientific support for the model.What is your Enneagram type? For each of the following statements, indicate how well it applies to you below. The IDRlabs Enneagram of Personality Test is the property of IDRlabs International. Ours is one of the few free tests that is subjected to statistical controls and validation. Even so, please keep in mind that tests are merely indicators - a first peek at the index to get you started. Personality Tests, Team Role Tests, and Career Tests, whether they are professional or "official" tests like the MBTI® (Myers-Briggs Type Indicator®), the NEO PI-R Five Factor Model Test, or free online Enneagram of Personality tests like this one, are merely indicators to help you find your personal outlook on the relevant indices measured. No test ever devised can designate your Enneagram or personality type with complete accuracy or reliability and no personality test can replace familiarizing yourself with the works of the relevant theories in the field. As the publishers of this free online Enneagram test, which allows you to discover your preferred Enneagram type, we have endeavored to make the test as reliable, valid, accurate, and complete as possible. Like the "official" tests such as the Belbin test, the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator®, the Jung Type Indicator, the NEO PI-R, and other such professional, accurate instruments (with which the present test should not be confused), our free online test is subjected to statistical controls and validation in order to make the results accurate and trustworthy. The authors of this free online Enneagram test are certified in the use of numerous personality tests and have worked professionally with psychometrics, typology, and personality testing. Prior to using our free Enneagram test, please note that while some of the results provided may be compatible with the results of other tests and training materials, this test should not be confused with official trademarked tests, such as the ones mentioned above. The results of our free online Enneagram of Personality test are provided "as-is", for free, and should not be construed as providing professional or certified advice of any kind.
